

Lifecare Medical Devices Sdn. Bhd. was set up in 2007 by a team of visionaries and development experts, in Penang, Malaysia. Lead by a team of extraordinary individuals. Lifecare Medical have successfully designed and built innovative medical products, without compromising the quality standards of medical industry around the world facilitating them with the best there is to offer, for their money worth.

With a highly trained and experienced R&D and marketing team, Lifecare Medical is accustomed to tailoring for the needs of our customers as well as for our end user. This is done using state-of-the-art products and development technology.

Continues success in producing quality innovative products to meet our customers need and our uncompromising quality, backed with great service, are the key principals of Lifecare Medical. We at Lifecare Medical do hope to build a great relationship with you and better understand your need to ensure total customer satisfaction. Lifecare - Passion for life.